Chairman, PETCOA

Subject: Response to Alleged Bypassing of Emission Testing and Roadworthiness Inspection

Dear Mr. Chang,

This letter is in response to your correspondence dated 13 October 2025 regarding the alleged bypassing of emission testing and roadworthiness inspection for the motor vehicle(s) listed therein.

After thoroughly reviewing our records and cross-checking the relevant data, we respectfully clarify that the inspection dates recorded in the PMVIC system exactly match the dates of registration renewal processed by the E-Patrol NCR. This confirms that all vehicles in question complied with the required inspections, and no bypassing or irregularities occurred in the process.

Please see Annex A for the attached test results and supporting documentation.

Thank you for your attention and continued support.

Respectfully yours,

CLAUDIO B. BON SOL JR.
Chief, Management Information Division

Subject : Request for Records of PMVIC Inspection and/or Records of PETC Emission Test

Dear Sirs:

It came to our attention that the below-listed motor vehicles are suspected to have undergone registration renewal without being tested or inspected in a PMVIC or PETC. Our informants have submitted their complaints and hence, this request.

We are from the Private Emission Testing Center Owners' Association (PETCOA) tasked to self-police our ranks, to uphold roadworthiness and public safety by eliminating illegal activities in the testing centers, in whatever capacity we can. These motor vehicles reported to us to have alleged by-passed emission testing and roadworthiness inspection:

We understand that LTO-MID has the complete test records from PMVIC and PETC, thus you can help us with the requested information. Hoping that you can provide us with the requested LTO-MID records sourced from the data repository server, of their PMVIC inspection and/or PETC emission test, or if these vehicles do not undergo any test and inspection, for us to determine the veracity of the reported complaints.

May we also politely remind you that your obligated response to inquiries about illegal activities is covered by Republic Act 6713, the Code of Conduct and Ethical Standards for Public Officials and Employees.

Respectfully yours,
